FACIAL SCULPT

featuring BUCCAL { buh . kl } - intra-oral facial massage

$325 | 60 MIN

The ultimate form of holistic facial rejuvenation and deep release. This facial massage focused treatment improves the skin's plumpness, facial contours and overall radiance using the power of massage to defy gravity and everyday habits that cause our skin to lose its youthfulness.

Beginning with a double cleanse and warm towel compress to prepare the skin. Followed by our Sculpting, Buccal AND Gua Sha facial massage techniques, this treatment is designed to target all 40 muscles of the face as well as your chest, shoulders, neck, and scalp. Releasing tension, stimulating circulation and lymphatic drainage whilst improving facial contour and definition. Complete with our de-puffing frozen cryo serum and hydrating aftercare.

Buccal Massage, is an intra-oral facial massage technique that targets the inner cheek, lips, chin and muscles surrounding the jaw. Using gloved hands, your therapist will gently massage the inside of your cheeks, working to loosen tight muscles, tone the facial tissues and target pressure points only accessible from inside the mouth. The movements can be subtle yet effective, focusing on areas that are difficult to reach from the outside.

Buccal can assist in deeply relaxing facial and jaw tension related to headaches and TMJ issues. Releasing emotions and stagnant energy stored in the muscle fascia. Furthermore, detoxifying the facial area, softening the appearance of wrinkles, giving the lower face a more sculpted and lifted appearance.
